Supporting the world: Enchantress ‘Wisdom Moon Mothers®’

Moon Mothers® who are up to ten years post-Sophia (last blood) women

By international women’s author and Teacher Miranda Gray

The need for the Enchantress

In this current crisis, we ‘Wisdom Moon Mothers®’ have a special role to play.

After Sophia (our last blood), our physical and energetic changes don’t stop - and they can continue for up to ten years before we feel the calm of the Crone. We are like the decreasing Moon after the Full Moon but before the half Moon phase – we are more light than darkness. We still face towards the outer world, but inside we feel the darkness growing, changing our perception and giving us intuitive and magical abilities. We are not yet ready to step into the calm of the Crone Mother, instead we are dynamic and direct, we are wild and unpredictable, and we are changing as the archetypes move through us without any pattern. We are dynamic darkness dancing.

As the crisis deepens in many countries there is a big need for a representative of the dynamic darkness – the Enchantress Archetype – to actively help and support women through this situation with ideas and solutions to problems.

There is deep and meaningful work to be done, so roll up your sleeves - because there is work for Wisdom Moon Mothers®.

Representing the Enchantress

When we identify with the Enchantress, we weave magic and change the world through our creativity and inspiration. We are not confined by the ‘normal’ way of thinking - instead we are free to look at things differently and see the way forward. We hold self-confidence and power, so we can be more direct and less empathic than the Mother or Crone - but we get things done and we push others to get things done or to do things in a different way.

Our role is to offer solutions to problems so that women can manage the challenges that the current situation brings them on a daily level. And we can offer oracle; reading an oracle card to give direction when the way ahead seems meaningless.

- Remember that everything the Enchantress does is done with love, so always keep heart-centred so you don't get frustrated or annoyed when someone is slow to respond.
- Remember that sometimes we have to soften the directness of the Enchantress, so we don't hurt someone's feelings. We want the woman to leave a session with us feeling confident and empowered to manage the problems in her life.
- Remember that even though you are in your Enchantress stage of life, the archetypes are still entering your life at different times. If you feel that you are in Crone energies, leave the Enchantress work until you leave the receptive darkness and return to dynamic darkness.

Note: If you find that you feel tense during the session or you are unable to keep centred in the love it may be that you need to take some time to balance the Enchantress within you. The Enchantress energies are powerful and empowering but when they are unbalanced, they can be domineering, destructive, bullying and forceful. You have a responsibility to only represent the balanced Enchantress energies.

Please, if you are an Enchantress 'Wisdom Moon Mother®' let women and Moon Mothers® know that you are there for them. Place yourself in your heart, bring the Enchantress to their problems and let the Enchantress flow through you to empower them.

Holding sacred 'Wisewoman Space' for others

You can create sacred Wisewoman Space in many different ways. At the moment, with social isolation and the virus restrictions, you can create this space through online communication rather than meeting in person. The ideal is to have video, but sound only is okay.

It is nice to have an oracle deck to use at the end of the session – and you can choose whichever deck appeals to you – but it is not a problem if you don't have one. (It may be that the Enchantress guides you to make your own!)

At the beginning of the sacred time read the following meditation and statement:

Take a deep breath and bring yourself into your body.

(Pause)

You sit under a night sky covered with stars next to a small fire.

As the firelight flickers you see shapes in the flames, and as the sparks rise they create faces and the shapes of animals.

Knowledge and empowerment lie in this place.

A woman sits next to the fire wearing a cloak of feathers, her face half hidden in the shadows.

You sit on the cushions next to the fire and wait.

(Pause)

In this place we sit in the presence of the Enchantress.

She wraps her magic around us to create a safe and sacred space.

Everything shared is held in confidence and accepted as an offering by the Enchantress.

Freely we give her our offering to be taken, healed and transformed into the deepest love and highest good.

Dark Maiden, bless us with your greater love and light so that it outshines our own.

During the session:

Now invite the woman to share her needs and situation with you.

As she talks, let the magic of the Enchantress flow from your heart and palms. Relax into this energy.

Ask her questions as she talks and be open to any and all ideas from the Enchantress. Notice problems that she hadn't thought about, share solutions and co-create how she can implement them into her life.

Your role is not to tell her what to do but to empower her with options on what she COULD do, and to inspire the confidence that she can do it.

At the end of the session:

Draw any card from an oracle deck for her, and read the information associated with it. If the Enchantress offers you inspiration and insight, share it with her.

To end the session, thank the woman for sharing her story.

Ask her to shut her eyes and to once again feel or see that she sits under the night sky by the fire.

Read the following out loud:

Dark Enchantress thank you for your powerful presence.

Thank you for taking what we have offered and for giving us the gift of empowering options and guidance in return.

May your inspiration and wild creativity follow us out into the world and guide us in changing our lives.

Take a deep breath and smile.

Open your eyes.

Suggest that after you end the online connection the woman should take some quiet time to sit in meditation to listen for the guidance of the Enchantress, and to then have something to eat and drink.
